I do hereby acknowledge and agree to the following.

I understand that horses are animals which even when trained can be unpredictable, explosive and inherently dangerous. When surprised or spooked, they can react in a number of dangerous ways. They can jump, bite, kick, rear, buck, and bolt. Falling off of horses while riding can cause serious injuries or death. I understand that no amount of training or supervision can fully protect me (or my child) from possible injury or even death as a result of horse related activities. The horse related activities that I may take part in include, but are not limited to, feeding, general horse maintenance, groundwork and clinic activities. If I engage in riding activities, I have been advised to wear a helmet and it is my responsibility to provide my own helmet. I understand that I may be engaging in many aspects of horse related activities at the facilities located at 6413 Sonoma Hwy., Santa Rosa, CA 95409, also known as The Pony Express Ranch. I understand that this agreement will remain in force until cancelled by me in writing.

I also understand that it is my responsibility to provide medical insurance for myself. It will not be the responsibility of Linda Aldrich, or anyone else at The Pony Express Ranch to provide medical insurance.

I give authorization to Linda Aldrich or any other adult in charge at this facility to seek medical attention for myself or for my child in the event of a medical emergency.
